NEWS

KS2 Reading

Please could children continue to bring in their own books from home for one more week. We are very close to having all our books catalogued and levelled: it has taken longer than expected, but staff and parent helpers have been beavering away over the last few weeks, sorting typing and labelling. By the end of next week, all children will have a school book again.

NSPCC KS1 and KS2

Next Thursday, representatives from the NSPCC will be delivering separate assemblies to KS1 and KS2. Their theme is 'Speak Out Stay Safe'. All children will be bringing home a letter about the event. Year 5 and Year 6 will also be taking part in workshops later in the month.

In order to raise money for the NSPCC and Children in Need, the children can come to school on Thursday wearing green, we are asking for a donation of a £1.00. However feel free to send in larger donations if you wish to.

Book Fair

The Book Fair raised £427.64, which means that the school receives a further £171.00 to spend on books. A big 'thank you' to everyone who bought books or stationery items, and once again 'thank you' to the parents who helped to run the event.

Remembrance Day

We will observe a minute's silence on Monday at 11am. Children may continue to wear their poppies on Monday. No slap bands in school after Monday please.

Have a good weekend
