

Free School Meals

Free school meals are available to pupils in receipt of, or whose parents are in receipt of, one or more of the following benefits:

- Universal credit (provided you have an annual net earned income of no more than £7,400, as assessed by earnings from up to three of your most recent assessment periods)
 - Income support
 - Income-based jobseeker's allowance
 - Income-related employment and support allowance
 - Support under Part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999
 - The guarantee element of pension credit
 - Child tax credit (provided you're not also entitled to working tax credit and have an annual gross income of no more than £16,190)
 - Working tax credit run-on – paid for four weeks after you stop qualifying for working tax credit
- In addition, the following pupils will be protected against losing their free school meals as follows:
- From 1 April 2018, all existing free school meals claimants will continue to receive free school meals whilst universal credit is rolled out. This will apply even if their earnings rise above the new threshold during that time
 - In addition, any child gaining eligibility for free school meals after 1 April 2018 will be protected against losing free school meals during the universal credit rollout period
 - Once universal credit is fully rolled out, any existing claimants that no longer meet the eligibility criteria at that point (because they are earning above the threshold or are no longer a recipient of universal credit) will continue to receive free school meals until the end of their current phase of education (i.e. primary or secondary). The universal credit rollout is currently expected to complete in March 2023.

Infant free School Meals

All children in key stage 1 (reception class, year 1 and year 2) are automatically entitled to have a free school meal. You don't have to apply for universal infant free school meals. However in order for your child's school to recognise who is eligible for universal meals, and who qualifies for government free school meals for funding purposes, we encourage all parents who meet the eligibility criteria for government free school meals to apply.
