Bronze Ambassadors WELL DONE!

Four Year 6 children, Charlie, Ellie, Olivia and Arlo have been selected to be our bronze ambassadors. They completed their training at Ludlow Primary School this week and can now lead playground games and help with sports competitions in school! We are very proud of them and wish them success in their new roles.

Courtesy Cup

This week's courtesy cup winner was Matilda Griffin, she was chosen by Mr Mckean as he was sat on the buddy bench by himself and she was very courteous and went over to check that he was okay and didn't need a friend to talk to. Well done, Matilda.

South Shropshire Area Tournament

On Thursday, the Year 5 & Year 6 football teams competed in the South Shropshire Area Tournament. It was enjoyed by all and they all demonstrated great teamwork. The girls team competed in a Round Robin and achieved 1st Place, which takes them through to the next tournament in Oldbury Wells. The boys team came 2nd in their group and then had a knockout game they had to win to get through. It was 0 - 0 and so it went to penalties in which they won 3 – 2! This means the boys have also got through to the next stage at Oldbury Wells!

Year 4 Class Assembly

Year 4 enjoyed performing to their parents and family on Wednesday. Their script covered their learning journey so far linking to their class text, 'Gorilla' by Anthony Brown. Everyone worked so hard as a team to learn all their lines, lyrics and actions, a HUGE well done Year 4!
